It is with great sadness that I am writing to the Reception class and all in our community, to let you know that Sofia's mum, Romelyn, has passed away after a short illness.

Sofia is in our Reception class and has been with us since Nursery. Although many of you may not have met Sofia's parents, we ask that you keep Sofia and her family in your thoughts and prayers at this extremely sad and difficult time.

Strike - 5th and 7th July

There are two strike days next week on Wednesday 5th and Friday 7th July.

Year 3 and Nur will be closed and arrangements for Y3 packed lunch will be as previous.
All other children must attend school.

Transition Days

We hold two transition days in school to allow the children to meet their new teachers and familiarise themselves with their new classroom. Due to the Strike these will now take place next week on Thursday 6th July and the following Wednesday 12th July.

Year 6 Transition Days

The majority of our Year 6 children are transferring to Liverpool High schools in September and due to the Strike, the arrangements for this have changed. We are still waiting for confirmation, but it looks like Liverpool visits will now take place on Thursday 6th July and Knowsley visits will remain on 5th July. Individual schools should have contacted parents directly by now.

Good Shepherd

We visited the Cathedral on Wednesday with our Year 3 class to take part in the Good Shepherd Mass. The children took a cheque from school with a donation for Nugent Care. The children sang beautifully and enjoyed the service and the day. They met Archbishop Malone at the end of Mass so please visit our twitter account to see a group photograph.

Sports Day

Unfortunately, due to wet weather we cancelled our KS2 Sports Day today. We will look at a date when we can re-arrange. Hopefully the weather will be fine for KS1 Sports Day on Friday next week, but we will keep you informed closer to the time.

Sacramental Preparation for the Current year 3 children

A letter went home this week from Fr David Gamble with Reconciliation dates and Communion dates for next year.

This is an important letter as it informs parents of the expectations for parental classes and when parents can register. There are some changes so please make sure that you are well aware of the programme.

1st Reconciliation - Tuesday 5th December 2023
