Welcome Back to School

It already seems like we have never been away, but we hope you all had a happy and holy Easter. On Tuesday the children attended a lovely welcome back mass with Fr David. Our whole school prayer and liturgy today continued our Easter focus as we begin to reflect on the Resurrection visits.

Dogs Trust Assembly

On Wednesday we had a wonderful visit from Dogs Trust. They talked to our Y1-Y6 children about safe and kind behaviour towards dogs, especially dogs they know and interact with at home and when out and about. It was really informative and will help the children to develop simple skills for life to have happy, safe relationships with dogs!

Our Delí bar which launched this week has been a real success. The children have enjoyed a range of colourful salads, vegetables and pastas. Along with this the children have been able to fill up their wraps / barm's with a range of sandwich fillings such as tuna, ham, chicken and cheese.
